Managing your social fundraisers with

Eventbrite 🎟️

Do you have a payment system in place for managing your social fundraisers? Eventbrite is an online payment system that can help you sell tickets, accept donations, and manage credit card payments.

How to get started:

- Go to www.eventbrite.com
- Click on "Create Event" on the upper right corner of home page, and follow the prompts to create an account
- Follow prompts to create a page or you can set a ticket price and quantity, add event details, share with social media, and more.

Eventbrite offers easy to follow video tutorials and other helpful options in their Help Center here:
